NICOLAI GEDDA

I have been working with Anando Mukerjee on his singing for a few years now.

I must say it has been a wonderful experience!

Not only is Anando endowed with a Lyrical Tenor, a lovely timbre and a fine sound in all registers, solid knowledge of several languages - but furthermore he has a quality - maybe rare among Tenors - he is an intelligent human being!

Anando would be a great asset to any Operatheater or Concert hall in the world and I wish from all my heart luck and big success in his coming career.
